

ILSA QUARTERLY

A Publication of the International Law Students Association

2011-2012 Advertising Rates and Information

The ILSA Quarterly is an academic magazine that features articles written by students, scholars and practitioners concerning timely issues of international law and related topics, as well as information on ILSA projects, study abroad programs, LL.M. programs and career opportunities in the field of international law.

The ILSA Quarterly is distributed to all of ILSA's student chapters and individual members, participants in the Jessup International Law Moot Court Competition, university career centers, international law institutions, and law libraries in schools around the world. In total, the ILSA Quarterly reaches students in over 600 law schools located in more than 80 countries.

The ILSA Quarterly is published four times during the academic year - October, December, February and May. Advertisers that place ads in all four issues receive 20% off the total cost of their ad order.
