A Powerful Multilingual Search Engine

Traditional search engines overlook at least 20% of legal references!

The screenshot shows the Jus Mundi search interface with the query "promotion of investment". It displays three results, each with a circled number: 1. Nordzucker v. Poland, Second Partial Award (Merits), 28 January 2009. 2. Nagel v. Czech Republic, SCC, Final Award, 9 September 2003. 3. Goetz v. Burundi (I), ICISD, Award (Embodying the Parties' Settlement Agreement), 10 February 1999. Each result includes a brief excerpt of the document's text.

1. Thousands of awards have been converted from poor quality PDFs to high-quality text-searchable documents so that you never overlook an important holding.

This is a snippet from a document, likely the Nagel v. Czech Republic award mentioned in the results. It shows sections 2.1 Promotion, 2.2 Admission in accordance with its law, and 8. The file contains no indication that Poland has failed to admit the investments in the Gdansk and Szczecin Groups in accordance with its law. Nordzucker has not pointed to an infringement of any statute or rule and the Tribunal has not found one. The Tribunal finds

2. Jus Mundi's artificial intelligence has been "taught" by a team of international lawyers to identify the most relevant portions of the documents responsive to your search, beyond your keywords.

3. Set the search criteria in English or French, review the responsive results in any language.

A Smart Way to Research an Arbitrator, Law Firm or Lawyer

Jus Mundi helps you to conduct an efficient and effective arbitrator, lawyer or law firm search to respond to the needs of your case

- Quickly identify cases in which a particular arbitrator sat
- Research potential conflicts of interest, double-hatting or repeat appointments of an arbitrator by a particular law firm
- Review legal reasoning of the arbitrators on the issues relevant to your case
- Identify legal pleadings of a law firm or a lawyer

The screenshot shows the Jus Mundi search interface with the query "ConocoPhillips v. Venezuela". It displays three results, each with a circled number: 1. ConocoPhillips v. Venezuela, ICISD, Decision on the Proposal to Disqualify a Majority of the Tribunal, 5 May 2014. 2. Repsol v. Argentine, ICISD, Decision on the Proposal for Disqualification of Francisco Orrego Vicuña and Claus von Wobeser, 13 December 2013. 3. Burlington v. Ecuador, ICISD, Decision on the Proposal for Disqualification of Professor Francisco Orrego Vicuña, 13 December 2013. Each result includes a brief excerpt of the document's text.

This is a screenshot of the Jus Mundi search filters. It shows the "Type of Document" filter with options for Decision (3), Arbitrator & Judge Challenge (3), Arbitrators/Judges, and Law Firms/Chambers/States BETA. The "Arbitrators/Judges" filter shows a search filter and a list of arbitrators, including Dr. Jim Yong Kim (3). The "Law Firms/Chambers/States BETA" filter shows a search filter and a list of law firms, including Freshfields Bruckhaus Deringer (3), Marval, O'Farrell & Mairal (1), Matrix Chambers (1), and Procuración de la Treasury of the Nation (1). The "Lawyers BETA" filter shows a search filter and a list of lawyers, including Álvarez-Ávila Gabriela (1), Blackaby Nigel (3), Carregal Santiago (1), Crawford James R. (1), and Esther Abbona Angélica María (1).
