INDONESIAN NATIONAL RULES SUPPLEMENT 2022

Indonesian Rule 0.0

Indonesian National Rules Supplement to the Official Rules

The Indonesian National Rules Supplement to the Official Rules of the 2022 Philip C. Jessup International Law Moot Court Competition (“Indonesian National Rules Supplement”) has been promulgated by the Indonesian National Administrator (“Administrator”) with the approval of the Executive Director of the International Law Students Association (“Executive Director”).

The present Indonesian National Rules Supplement is intended to facilitate the conduct of the 2022 Indonesian National Round of Phillip C. Jessup International Law Moot Court Competition (“2022 Indonesian National Round”). The Indonesian National Rules Supplement complements the Official Rules for the 2022 Philip C. Jessup International Law Moot Court Competition (“Official Rules”).

The Indonesian National Rules Supplement shall not preclude the Administrator from adopting any additional measure before, during, and after the 2022 Indonesian National Rounds pursuant to Rule 1.8(a) of the Official Rules.

Indonesian Rule 1.0

Organization and Structure of the Competition

- 1.1. The 2022 Indonesian National Round is hosted by the Indonesian Society of International Law (“INASIL”).
- 1.2. The 2022 Indonesian National Round is administered by an Administrator appointed by INASIL and approved by International Law Student Association (“ILSA”):

Name : Joshua Gilbert Langoy, S.H.

Mobile : (+62) 821 1143 5686

- 1.3. The Executive Director has the right to determine the number of Teams participating in the 2022 International Round of Philip C. Jessup Moot Court Competition (“International Round”) held online.
- 1.4. Pursuant to Section 1.2 of the Official Rules, 5 (five) Teams will advance to the International Rounds. The Indonesian National Representatives to the International Rounds shall be the Champion, Runner Up, Second Runner Up, Third Runner Up, and the next highest-ranked team of the 2022 Indonesian National Round.

Indonesian Rule 2.0

Eligibility, Selection, and Outside Participation

- 2.1. Every Team in this competition that has engaged in a simulation, practice, or discussion with an individual for the purpose of obtaining feedback, advice, or commentary toward the Team’s written Memorials, is obliged to register the said individual under the name of its Team Advisor.
- 2.2. Every Team is not permitted to conduct simulations, practices, nor discussion with any individuals who have confirmed their participation to serve as a Judge in the 2022 Indonesian National Round or International Rounds. Violation of this rule will result in the disqualification from the 2022 Indonesian National Round.
- 2.3. Every Team is not permitted to conduct simulations, practices, nor discussion with any individuals that serve as a committee in the 2022 Indonesian National Round or INASIL. Violation of this rule will result in the disqualification from the 2022 Indonesian National Round.
- 2.4. With regards to Rule 2.17 of the Official Rules, posting pictures of the Jessup Team or the Team Members on social media or publicly available websites does not constitute a violation of the anonymity under the Official Rules nor the Indonesian National Rules Supplement as long as the Team Number is not stated.

Indonesian Rule 3.0

Memorial

- 3.1. All Teams that submit Memorials to the Administrator authorized the Administrator and INASIL the right to use and to publish the Memorials for relevant purposes upon the completion of the International Rounds.

Indonesian Rule 4.0
Oral Rounds Procedures

- 4.1. During Preliminary Round:
- a. Each Team shall compete 4 (four) times, twice as Applicant and twice as Respondent;
 - b. The pairings shall be done by random draw by the Administrator of the 2022 Indonesian National Round;
 - c. The Administrator may modify the pairings to account for absent Teams or other contingencies;
 - d. Memorials of the opposing Teams will be distributed electronically before commencement of the Preliminary Rounds via email. If Teams must be newly paired, they must be provided with their new opponent's Memorials as soon as reasonably possible, but at the very least 15 minutes prior to the start of the newly paired Moot.
- 4.2. In the event of rescheduled and ex parte moots:
- a. The Administrator will use his best effort to administer ex parte moots or reschedule the match based on the available circumstances;
 - b. The Administrator will adopt the ex parte or reschedule procedure as provided under the Official Rules and may vary such procedures in the best interest of the 2022 Indonesian National Round;
 - c. Ex parte and rescheduled moots are only applicable if a team has technical difficulties and such difficulties caused the team to be unable to participate in the online moot based on the provided schedule;
 - d. The team must provide notification and evidence to the Administrator concerning the technical difficulties as soon as possible before ex parte or rescheduled moots may be duly considered.
- 4.3. The Teams that advance to Semifinal Round and Final Round will be granted a 90 (ninety) minutes preparation time.
- 4.4. Judges of the oral rounds will be selected in accordance with the spirit of Rule 4.1 of the Official Rules. In line with the independence and impartiality requirements, Judges of the oral rounds hold the duty to disclose any circumstances including but not limited to affiliation or relationship with a university (of which he or she is an alumnus), Coach, or Team Member, that might give rise to justifiable doubts as to his or her independence and impartiality.

- 4.5. The Administrator shall use his or her best endeavors to avoid placing a judge into an Oral Round in which an affiliation will arise by virtue of his or her relationship to the Competitor in that Round, such that his or her Independence will be impugned. In the event that the placement of the aforementioned judge in that round is unavoidable the Administrator shall ensure that: no more than 1 (one) affiliated judge is placed in an oral round and that said affiliated judge does not act as the President in that oral round.

Indonesian Rule 5.0

Conduct of the Oral Rounds

- 5.1. The Preliminary Rounds, Quarterfinals Rounds, Semifinal Rounds, and the Championship Rounds will be conducted as Online Moots in accordance with the procedure set forth under Rule 7 of the Official Rules.
- 5.2. The 2022 Indonesian National Round will use Zoom as the application to conduct the Online Moots. The Administrator may implement supplemental guidelines to ensure the smooth running of the Online Moots.
- 5.3. Prior to the competition, the Administrator will hold a technical meeting for the Teams. The Teams are required to send at least one of the Team Members to attend the technical meeting.
- 5.4. The Teams are required to prepare the following as a precautionary action in case of technical difficulties:
- a. A stable network connection and its backup in case of network malfunction;
 - b. Devices and its backup that is compatible with the Zoom application.
- 5.5. The Teams are responsible for ensuring the readiness of their network connection, devices, and its backup. The Administrator will not be responsible for any technical malfunction experienced by the Team.
- 5.6. The Administrator will provide a technical guideline containing technical information and direction for the Online Moot. The Teams, observers, and spectators must follow the appropriate directions to be admitted into the Zoom application.
- 5.7. Each Team shall enter the Zoom waiting room at least 30 minutes before the Preliminary Rounds, Quarterfinals Rounds, Semifinal Rounds, and the Championship Rounds schedule.
- 5.8. Suppose a Team fails to join the moot and fails to inform the reason for such failure to the Administrator after waiting for 10 minutes. In that case, the Administrator will dismiss the team from the Preliminary Round match.

- 5.9. Suppose a Team fails to join the moot and inform justifiable reasons for such failure to the Administrator. In that case, the Administrator may duly consider the Team's request for ex parte or rescheduled moots after consulting with the President of the match. Following the consultation, the Administrator will use his or her right to determine the possibility of initiating ex parte or reschedule moots.
- 5.10. The Team should position their camera in a way that participant's faces and upper bodies are visible to the judges during the whole oral pleading session.
- 5.11. The Teams should have their microphone muted as long as the Court in-session unless they are making their oral submission or the President asks them to speak.
- 5.12. No virtual background is allowed as long as the Court is in session.
